

Gwinnett County Public Schools

Home About Us Schools Students Parents Staff Community

Search GCPS:

Quick Links

- Accountability Report
- Feedback
- AKS/Curriculum
- Assessment/Testing
- Calendars
- Careers
- Community Schools
- GCPS Foundation
- GCPS TV
- Homework Help
- Human Resources
- Instructional Resources
- Newcomer Information
- Phone Directory
- Schools
- School Nutrition

Teaching and Learning

Board of Education

Administration

Planning for Our Future

Publications

News

GCPS
437 Old Peachtree
Rd NW
Suwanee, GA
30024-2978
(678) 301-6000

Copyright 2008 GCPS
All Rights Reserved

During the school year, the Department of Communication & Media Relations produces a media tip sheet called "News You Can Use, which is distributed to metro Atlanta news outlets electronically. This publication provides school and system news, including recent honors, upcoming events, calendar items, and photo opportunities at local schools and central office locations. The tip sheet is sent out at the end of each week, and covers news and GCPS items of interest for the coming 7-10 days.

View All Archived News You Can Use

News You Can Use...

A Gwinnett County Public Schools Tip Sheet For The News Media 04/19/2004 - 04/25/2004

HONORS

Lilburn Middle has achieved national recognition as an Exemplary HOSTSLink Language Arts program for the school year 2002-03. For more information, call 770-921-1776.

Parkview High teacher Sandra Peterson and Central Gwinnett High teacher Garry Loveless presented "It's a Material World" at the National Science Teacher's Convention in Atlanta. For more information, call 770-921-2874.

Alyson Roth, G.H. Hopkins Elementary music teacher, co-presented a session on diversity in music education at the convention of the National Association for Music Education in Minnesota on April 15. The session was titled "Barrier-free Music Education: Concepts of Inclusion." For more information, call 770-564-2661.

Karla Cuadra, Lilburn Elementary English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Title III Parent Outreach Liaison, was honored by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) on April 2 with the 2004 NASP "Outstanding Advocate Award." For more information, call 770-921-7707.

Angela Scott Patrick, teacher on special assignment for K-12 mathematics, is one of two Georgia teachers awarded the Fulbright Scholarship. As a Fulbright Scholar, she will participate in a cultural exchange and professional development program for three weeks in Japan this summer. For more information, call 678-377-6104.

The 2004 National Achievement Scholarship Program recently announced winners for outstanding Black American high school students who earned $2,500 scholarships: Winfred Allen of Collins Hill High, Rashad Burroughs of Shiloh High, Ezinne Okwandu of South Gwinnett High, and Stephanie Stennett of Berkmar High.