5 | 12 | 08 STUDENTS MEET CHALLENGED ACHIEVERS WHO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Students at the Fenn School welcomed Nicolai Calabria of Concord who climbed Mt. Kiliminjaro to raise funds to provide wheelchairs for disabled poor people in developing countries, Emmanuel Ofose Yeboah, resident of Ghana, Africa and inspiration behind the documentary "Emmanuel's Gift ", and Ms. Alyson Roth, Development Manager for Free Wheelchair Mission which seeks to transform lives through the gift of mobility. The three spoke at a special assembly about accepting the challenges presented by disability as well the opportunities they have taken to make a positive difference in the lives of individual and societies.

After the event the boys had a chance to see and try the specially adapted wheel chairs that will be shipped to places where they help revolutionize lives of many. They also took the opportunity to chat with Nicolai, Mr.Yeboah, and Ms. Roth about their work and lives.
